5. Status of the Action

Action Chair Peter Knight gives an update on the state of the Action:

1. Achieved objectives:
  - putting a spotlight on research in conspiracy theory by coordinating disparate studies into a coherent field of inquiry
  - creating dialogue and collaboration between scholars employing different methodologies
  - advance knowledge by enabling scholars to integrate findings that they have so far been unaware of because the research was conducted in an unfamiliar language
  - producing a comparative analysis of conspiracy theories that answers overarching and important questions
  - constructing new research questions and projects of transnational and transdisciplinary nature
  - sustaining the collaboration of its members beyond its lifetime
  - train a new generation of scholars in this area of inquiry
  - grant-holding university will provide funds to maintain the project website after the end of the Action
2. Still open objectives:
  - equipping the major stakeholders with robust knowledge and strategies to understand and counter accusations of conspiracy
  - close working relationships between academics and non-academics that will continue after the end of the Action
3. Achieved deliverables:
  - STSMs
  - Workshop with stakeholders
  - Website; e-newsletter
  - Literature review
  - Two international conferences (incl. stakeholders)
  - Training schools
  - New research projects (e.g. PiCOM)
  - Edited volume (NB podcast series)
4. Still open deliverables:
  - Teaching resources, sample syllabi, a database of experts, and recommendations for policy makers and journalists

6. Report by Grant Holder

The Grant Holder Michael Butter gives an update on the state of the action:

- Introduction of new Grant Manager Marina Pingler
- University of Tübingen will provide funds to hire research assistance for editing work over the summer of the handbook

7. Accepting New Members & Allocating Budget
